Re: MUR 3774

BY FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION & U.S. MAIL

Dear Ms. Odrowski:

The following is my clients' response to the allegations contained in the supplemental complaint filed by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee (DSCC) in this matter.

The allegations in this complaint do not state a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act or of any regulations promulgated by the Commission. The activities in which my clients allegedly engaged were perfectly lawful. Specifically, any distribution of voter guides or any non-partisan get-out-the-vote calls by my clients would be lawful activities because they do not contain express advocacy--regardless of whether my clients received any monies from the National Republican Senatorial Committee which were then used to fund such activities.

In sum, the complaint filed by the DSCC against my clients is without legal basis, and the Commission should not act upon it. We trust your Office will advise the Commission accordingly.

Sincerely yours,

BOPP, COLESON & BOSTROM
